Seeking Native Artist Local to the IHS Bemidji Area!
(Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin)

The National Indian Health Board is seeking to work with a Native artist local to the IHS Bemidji Area for our 2020 National Tribal Behavioral Health Conference taking place in the Bemidji Area in late spring/early summer 2020. Selected artwork will be featured throughout our conference books, banners, staging, and digital marketing.

Artwork could be paintings, drawings, beadwork, crafts, pottery, sculpture, photography, etc.

The selected artist will also receive a complimentary conference exhibit booth in our exhibit hall.

Please submit high resolution images of original artwork to Courtney Wheeler, cwheeler@nihb.org no later than Friday, February 7, 2020.
